Attitude when recruiting new partners

When joining the sales team of Natural Immune Control System Zrt., each new entrant completes and signs a Long-Term Agency Contract, and reads and understands the Rules of Organization and Operation at www.nics.hu. This contract includes the correct data of Natural Immune Control System Zrt., the data of the newly entering consultant, and the terms of the contract. After entry, an independent ID is assigned to each independent distributor. The distributors' income is determined by the sales made by them and by the members sponsored by them.

During recruitment and sponsoring, fair and correct information should be given about potential income. Natural Immune Control System Zrt. provides comprehensive information to newly entering members about the opportunities and conditions offered by the career plan. The career plan developed by the company must not be misleading. The company cannot guarantee a specific income.

Attitude toward independent distributors

At the intervals specified in its contracts, Natural Immune Control System Zrt. is obliged to prepare a financial statement including commissions, sales, and any other important information specified in the Long-Term Agency Contract.

Miscellaneous

Modifying the career plan published by Natural Immune Control System Zrt. is strictly forbidden.

Employees and independent distributors are obliged to hold in confidence during their work any business secret and any information of critical importance about their activities.

Natural Immune Control System Zrt. does not give a false picture about its competitors, and by following the principles of fair market conduct, does not entice distributors and staff members from other companies engaged in direct sale.

The advertisement, publicity materials and leaflets published by the company and the information on its website do not contain misleading product parameters, warranties on efficacy or any promise regarding the commission that can be earned. The name, address and telephone number of the company must be shown on any such materials.
