1. Verbal complaint:

In accordance with section 17/A (5) of Act CLV of 1997 on Consumer Protection, our company promptly investigates and remedies, to the extent possible, any verbal complaints (including those reported in person and by telephone). If prompt complaint investigation is not possible, records are drawn up about the complaint and the related opinion, and a copy of the records is given to the Customer. In the event of complaints reported by telephone, the records provided with an individual ID and the written response to the complaint are sent to the Customer within 30 calendar days. We are obliged to give the reasons for any complaint rejected.

The records shall include the following data:

- a) Customer's name, home address, purchase order number (if any);
- b) Place, data and method of complaint submission;
- c) Details of the Customer's complaint, and if the complaint is submitted in person, a list of the documents and other evidence submitted by the Customer;
- d) A statement of our company's opinion on the Customer's complaint if prompt complaint investigation is possible;
- e) Signature of the person drawing up the records and, in the event of reporting in person, of the Customer;
- f) Place and time of drawing up the records;
- g) Individual ID of the complaint if reported by telephone.

The company is obliged to retain the records of the complaint and a copy of its response for a period of five years, and present it to the inspection authorities upon their request.

2. Written complaint
